PROVINCIAL PUBLIC TRANSPORT DAY IN ULUNDI

In response to a number of challenges faced by residents of uLundi, KwaZulu-Natal Premier Nomusa Dube-Ncube is leading the Provincial Public Transport Day in uLundi to promote an efficient, safe and dependable public transportation system. As part of this, The MEC for KZN Agriculture and Rural Development, Bongive Sithole-Moloi, is at the A Rank in uLundi where she will take a taxi as form of public transport to the uLundi CBD where she will interact with commuters around matters of road safety and food security.
