KWAZULU-NATAL PROVINCIAL MULTI-SECTORAL STRATEGY TO CURB CHILD AND TEENAGE PREGNANCIES

The Premier of KwaZulu-Natal, Honourable Thami Ntuli, together with the KwaZulu-Natal MEC for Agriculture and Rural Development, Hon. Thembeni kaMadlopha-Mthethwa and Members of the Executive Council, officially launched the KwaZulu-Natal Multisectoral Strategy to address child and teenage pregnancies.

This strategic initiative seeks to confront deeply rooted social challenges while promoting the well-being of children and youth across the province. It unites government departments, communities and partners from various sectors in efforts to address the rising incidences of child and teenage pregnancies in KwaZulu-Natal.
