

Mooi-Mpofana Agricultural Association hosts its 122nd AGM

The Mooi-Mpofana Agricultural Association (MMAA) in the KwaZulu-Natal Midlands recently hosted its 122nd AGM.

Farmers and other agriculturalists from the area met to discuss matters pertaining to their business interests. Those in attendance were also given a presentation by KZN's MEC for Agriculture and Rural Development, Cyril Xaba, on the importance of stakeholders in the province's agricultural sector working together to grow the sector sustainably.

– Lloyd Phillips

Speakers at the AGM were (back, from left): Dudley Anderson (incoming MMAA chairperson), Angus Williamson (incoming MMAA vice-chairperson), James Kean (MMAA committee member) and (front, from left): Nkosi Nduna Mchunu (member of the eMdubuzweni Traditional Council), Maureen Ngubane (mayor of Mpofana Local Municipality), Cyril Xaba (KZN MEC for agriculture and rural development), Graham Armstrong (trustee of the MMAA) and Richard Anderson (outgoing MMAA chairperson).

LLOYD PHILLIPS