Two arrested for farm murder

SIBONGISENI MAPHUMULO

POLICE in KZN are confident of catching the remaining suspects in the murder of sugar cane farmer Peter Johnson, 56.

Following the arrest of a 42-year-old man and a 53-year-old woman, in relation to the murder of Johnson and the attempted murder of his brother, Ian, police spokesperson Col Jay Naicker said they were hot on the trail of the other suspects. The two arrested suspects are expected to appear in the Nyoni Magistrate's Court today for charges of murder, attempted murder and armed robbery.

"The team worked around the clock and have taken two suspects in for questioning. They are in custody and detectives are on the trail of the remaining suspects," Naicker said.
