RULES GOVERNING PAYMENT OF FEES

- Student Union (CSU) fees have to be paid in full on or before registration.
- A minimum amount of one month's fees is payable on or before registration
  - e.g. R 1 300 for accommodation and R 704.00 for accommodation (R 2004.00)
- Academic and Accommodation fees are payable on a semester basis.
  - Half the fees have to be paid in full by 07 June of each year.
  - The remainder has to be paid by 07 November of each year.
  - Fees may be paid on a monthly basis provided that prior arrangement is made with the Principal and that an approved bank debit order is in place, i.e. the full amount has to be paid in ten (10) equal monthly instalments (incl. initial registration payment).
- Students who have not paid the minimum required fees at the end of each semester will not have their results released and will not be allowed to register for the following semester.
- The College also reserves the right to withhold any marks of any assessments or examinations if a student's fees are in arrears.
- Payment methods: All payments should preferably be done by direct deposit or electronic payment. Cheques will be accepted, but receipts will only be issued once the cheque has been cleared through the bank. Cash payments are accepted, but not recommended. No Postal Orders will be accepted.
